WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1737

9th 573.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS from NAPLES say, that several Stone-Cutters and other Workmen, are sent from thence for Bitonto, to build an Obelisk in one of the Squares of that Place, in Remembrance of the Victory gain'd at Bitonto by the Duke of Montemar over the Imperial Forces.

From ROME, That the Pope has resolved on the 1st of May next, to make a Promotion of Cardinals at the Nomination of the Crown'd Heads.

From CORSICA, That the Number of Male-contents increases every Day, so that they were absolute Masters of all the Country, and made continual Excursions to the Gates of the 4 Places possess'd by the Genoese, into which they will not suffer any Provisions to enter.

From VIENNA, That the Duke of Lorain proposes to set out the 9th of May O.S. for the Army, all the Officers who are to serve in Hungary, being already gone; and that his and his Brother's Equipages, which are very Magnificent, and will cost above 500,000 Florins, are almost finish'd.

From LISBON, That when Sir John Norris had his Audience of Leave of his Portuguese Majesty, he desired him to assure the King of Great Britain, on his Return, that he would always remember the Marks of Friendship which his Britannick Majesty had lately given him, and that he would watch every Opportunity to shew his Gratitude. The King also told the Admiral, That such was his Esteem for the English Nation, that the Subjects therein depending, who trade to the Dominions of the Crown of Portugal, either in Europe or the Indies, shall enjoy the same Advantages in their Commerce, as the Natives of his own Dominions. The Expenses which 'tis said the English Fleet has put the King of Portugal to, are computed at near a Million of Cruzadoes. After having been for a Year and Half at the Mouth of the Tagus, it weigh'd Anchor on the 26th ult. O.S. and set sail; but was obliged next Day to drop its Anchors again, by Reason of a great Calm, and to wait for a Wind; which at length blow'd fair, and a happy Gale it was, they say, for many of the Inhabitants, whom the Gallantries of some of the Officers had made extremely uneasy.

Don Emanuel till his Peace is made with the King, and for this Purpose the Queen Dowager of Spain, who resides there, has wrote a Letter to the Queen of Portugal.

Don Sebastian de Andrade Passanha, formerly Archbishop of Goa, and Viceroy of the Portuguese Settlements in the East Indies, is lately dead at Lisbon, in the 77th Year of his Age.

The Letters from WARSAW say, the Damages done in the Ukraine by the late Incursion of the Tartars, is much more considerable than was given out; that they have committed horrid Ravages in the Country of the Czaik Tartars, to be reveng'd for the Disorders committed by the latter in their late Expedition to the Crim; that the Tartars burnt the Town of Czaik, where the Chief of those Cossacks resided, and that they likewise set Fire to above 30 neighbouring Villages, and put all the Inhabitants to the Sword, without Distinction of Age or Sex. They add, that the Tartars committed the like Ravages in some Villages along the Borysthene, that were inhabited by the Ruffians. General Lesley's Son, who was lately taken Prisoner by them, is since carried to the Kan of the Crim Tartary, who has resolv'd not to let him have his Liberty without a very great Ransom.

A Fire has happen'd at Patak in Upper Hungary, which has consum'd a fine Church of the Jesuits there, with their Convent and Seminary; a Convent of the Monks of Trinity; several Houses, and the greatest Part of the Castle. The Tower of the Place was likewise reduced to Ashes, and the Bells, of which we weigh'd near 70 Quintals, were melted.

The Lady of the Baron de Sporke, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, at the Hague, died there last Monday last night. She was the Daughter of the late Pensionary Slingenland.

The Courts of Sweden and Denmark are in Treaty with one another for improving the Commerce carried on by the Companies settled in their Dominions, to the East Indies and to China; and both Courts have prohibited their Ships to frequent the Settlements of the English and Dutch in the East Indies, in order to prevent any Complaints from those Nations.

From the London Gazette.

Madrid, April 15, N. S. The Masters of some French Tartanes having reported at Marseilles and other Places on the Coasts of Provence and Languedoc, that a contagious Distemper was raging in the Principality of Catalonia, the Magistrates at Marseilles gave immediate Orders, that all Vessels that came from Spain should perform Quarantine, and pass through all the Formalities practis'd in Cases of a Plague. The Commander at Perpignan having been inform'd of the Measures that had been taken at Marseilles, thought proper on his Part to form a Line, by which he cut off all Sort of Communication with Spain by Land, as Marseilles had done by Sea. A Courier dispatched to Naples by this Court, was the first who was refus'd Entrance into France, and was obliged to return back to Barcelona: Upon which the Captain General of Catalonia sent an Express hither to acquaint this Court with what had happened upon the Frontiers: And as proper Certificates have since been transmitted to the Governor of Perpignan, as well as to the chief Commanders in Languedoc and Provence, whereby it appears that neither Catalonia, nor any other Province in this Kingdom, have been afflicted with any contagious Distemper, or any thing more than Colds occasioned by the extreme Dryness of the Weather; there is no Doubt, but that this false Alarm will soon vanish, and that a free Communication will soon be opened again between these Provinces and those of France.

Dresden, April 29. The Universalia are sent to Poland for the assembling a great Council of the Senators of that Kingdom at Fraustadt on the 8th of July next, at which his Polish Majesty is to assist. Both the Emperor and the Czarina press the Departure of the Saxon Troops for Hungary, and though the Orders are already given for their being ready to march by the Middle of next Month, yet it is believed they cannot begin their March till the latter End of it. We have received News here, that Count Munich was gone with 40,000 Men to besiege Oczakow; and that General Lacy, and the Prince of Hesse Hambourg, each with a different Body of Troops, are likewise march'd to observe the Enemy and cover the Besiegers.

Kels, April 13. Yesterday Col. Tottenham, High Sheriff of our County, made a very handsome Appearance at the Bounds, where he was attended by the principal Gentlemen of this County. The Right Hon. the Earl of Anglesea gave an Ox, which was Roasted whole in the Street, where there was a great deal of Diversion shewn by the Mob in cutting it up.

Cork, April 15. Last Thursday Night one Glas a Bailiff, hearing that a young Gentleman (for whom he had an Action) was at a Dancing School, went there to take him; as soon as he enter'd the Room, the Gentleman drew his Sword, and desired him to keep his Distance, or he should pay for offering to take him in such a Place; but Glas, regardless of his Threats, attack'd him, upon which the Gentleman ran him thro' the Body, so that he died that Evening, and the Gentleman was taken by a Comrade of Glas's and committed to Gaol.

Mullingar, April 16. Last Friday a Gentleman of the County of Westmeath was taken on a mark'd Wit of 1000^l. by the following Stratagem: The Bailiff who had the Warrant, hearing the Gentleman was to hunt next Morning, provided a Hare at some little Distance from the Kennel Door, and dragg'd it along the Ground for about a Mile to an Ambuscade prepar'd for the Gentleman; the Dogs ran the Dragg, and the Gentleman pursuing came in with the Hounds and was taken.

Edinburgh, April 19. We hear from Elgin, that upon the 4th current, died the Master of the Mulick School of that Place, the greatest Vocal Musician of his Time, who wanted nothing but Ambition to render him as conspicuous for his Skill in Scots Musick, as the famous Farinelli is for the Italian. It will be allowed by all who knew him, that if he did not excel in Theory, his Practice gave it the last Touch. His Death is to be so much the more regretted, by how much Vocal Musick (his particular Talent) exceeds Instrumental, or Church Musick deserves the Place of any other Kind of Harmony. In a Word, his only Description is, that he is not to be described. But if Words are significant of their Meaning, we may say negatively, that the improperest Person in Britain was called (ALEXANDER) RUST.

Thursday last came on the Election of one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, in the room of the Earl of Orkney, when the Earl of Bute was unanimously chosen.

The same Day the following Persons set out for London, viz. Mr. Robert Yeats, Preacher of the Gospel; William Ure, Goldsmith; James Hunter, Shoemaker; William Inglis, Clerk to a Brewery; John Hillop, Keeper of the Town's Stores; Walter Ruddiman and James Grant, Printers, and several others, to appear as Evidences upon the 2^d of May, the Day appointed for the second Reading of the Bill for disabling and imprisoning Alexander Wilson, Esq; Lord Provost of this City, abolishing the City-Guard, and taking away the Gates of the Netherbow-Port, &c. And this Day set out for London the Sergeant of the City Guard, who was on Duty the Night of Capt. Porteous's Murder, with one of the Town Officers, and the Centinel who was that Night at the Guard Door.

Last Saturday Night died by a Fall from his Horse, between the East Bridge of Earn and Perth, Patrick Bayne of Findal, Esq; Collector of the Supply for that County, a Place of 150^l per Ann.

Friday last being the Birth-day of his Highness the Duke of Cumberland, the Musick Bells were play'd, and many loyal Healths were drunk by the Magistrates, and several other Persons of Distinction.

By Letters from Boston in New England of December last, we have the melancholy News of the Ship the Anne of Edinburgh, James Blair, Master, which sail'd from Leith for that Place in the Month of September last, unluckily struck on a Sand Bank as she was entering the Harbour of Boston in December; this so alarmed the Persons on board, that 31 of 'em took to the long Boat, viz. 20 Men and 11 Women, which soon overboard, and all of them perished, except Mr. Houston the Mate, and a Boy whom he carried ashore on his Back. The Captain and four Women remained on board the Ship, but were so extremely chill'd with Cold, in being a severe snowy Night, that he is since dead, and two of the Women are like to lose the Use of their Limbs: The Ship and Goods were afterwards got into the Harbour.

On Friday last was held in the Society-Hall, a quarterly general Meeting of the Governors of the Orphan Hospital, when they authoris'd their Managers to admit and receive 21 more Orphans, Boys and Girls, collected from different Parts of the County, into the Hospital, which will make about 50 upon that Foundation; a very surprising Progress of that useful and charitable Undertaking, which was begun only in the Year 1734; and it must give great Satisfaction to the pious and well-disposed Contributors, to observe so good Effects of their Charity, and such a Number of destitute Children maintained and made useful to the World: There are several Boys put out from it to Trades of their own Chusing, and there are Nineteen of them already brought to work upon the Loom in the Manufacture carried on in Paul's Work for the Education of these Children; several Girls are sent out to be Servants in private Families, and all of them in the Hospital are employed in some useful Work.

Worcester, April 14. On Sunday Night last the four Prisoners condemn'd at the last Assizes broke through a very strong Wall of the County Gaol, and by that Means made their Escape, but by the extraordinary Diligence of the Gaoler, who sent out several hundred People after 'em, two were retaken on Monday and brought back. It's found out which Way the others are gone, so that they are expected to be laid hold on soon. Two Persons who assisted some of 'em in filing off their Irons are committed.

Worcester, April 21. Last Friday Night a Fire broke out in a Malt House at Omberly, within four Miles of this City, wherein was a considerable Quantity of Malt, which was consum'd, with two adjacent Houses, &c. and the poor Inhabitants reduc'd to great Extremity.

The same Day one of the condemn'd Criminals that broke out of Gaol and re-taken, nam'd Benjamin Turner, for House-breaking, was executed, shewing little or no Signs of Repentance till he came to the Gallows, where he said nothing worth taking Notice of.

The same Night was a great Confusion in the Castle, upon the Account of a hideous Outcry of a certain Debtor, who it seems was surpris'd to the last Degree, about Midnight, to see his Room on a sudden as light as if twenty Candles were all burning, and at the Corner of the Chamber to see the Apparition of the said Turner, in the Habit he went to be executed in, and in a Moment to vanish in a Flame of Fire out of the Window. We hear the said Debtor was a Person that never before entertain'd the least Thoughts of an Apparition or Spirit; but he now confidently affirms the abovesaid Relation to be Matter of real Fact.

The Gaoler hearing the said Outcry, immediately betook himself to Arms, fearing the Prisoners were again breaking the Gaol, and finding the said Debtor in a most frightful Agony, compassionated his Condition so far, as to permit one to lodge with him the remaining Part of the Night, pursuant to the frighted Person's Request.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumptions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions in the Breast and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Grogginess of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when feared.
